Separated/Divorced Parents/Guardians

When parents/guardians are separated or divorced the College is required by law to provide both parents/guardians with copies of school reports, information etc. Therefore, even if a parent/guardian is applying as a sole applicant, details for both parents/guardians must be completed on the previous page and both parents/guardians must sign this enrolment form. Relevant court order relating to residence (custody), contact (access) arrangements, and fee arrangement for the student must be provided to the school.

Exceptions:

- If a court order has been made restricting parental contact. copy required
- If a written statement of clear instructions is provided to the school signed by both parents/guardians where no court orders are in place.
